

2023 CASA ASIA AWARDS

YEARS

CASA ASIA

Casa Asia, an institution of public diplomacy made up by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, European Union and Cooperation of Spain, the Generalitat of Catalonia and the City Councils of Barcelona and Madrid, was founded in 2001 with the aim of promoting knowledge, dialogue and relations between the Asia-Pacific region and Spain, mainly among their respective civil societies.

To this end, it set up the Casa Asia Award in 2004. The aim of this initiative was to acknowledge and disseminate the work of organizations, both public and private, and individuals that excelled in their respective fields of activity in Asia-Pacific or in the promotion of the relations of Spain with the countries of the Asia-Pacific region.

Casa Asia announces the Casa Asia Awards 2023 according to the following

RULES

1. The awards are granted annually and given to those individuals and organizations, both public and private, that have excelled in the economic, social, educational, cultural or cooperation for development fields, promoting dignity and human rights in the Asia-Pacific region, and/or have contributed to promoting knowledge, dialogue and relations between Spain and the Asia-Pacific region. The Awards will be granted in the following four categories:

- Economy and Business: candidates that have made a substantial contribution to the development of relations between Spain and Asia and the Pacific in the field of economics, tourism or trade and investment relations.

- Education and Science: nominations that stand out for their significant contribution in the field of research of Asia and the Pacific or any of the countries of the region.

- Culture and Society: nominations presenting artistic proposals in all their forms (visual arts, cinema, literature, music) or candidatures focused on the analysis of Asian complexity in the political or social fields.

- Diversity and Sustainable Development: nominations with an outstanding social impact in the field of intercultural dialogue, the development of a diverse and inclusive society, gender equality, or any other field of action related to the 17 goals of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

2. Any person or entity may submit nominations for the awards in each of the four categories. All nominations should be presented by highlighting the merits of the person or organization proposed as candidate in a template that can be downloaded from Casa Asia's website.

Self-nominations, including nominations presented from an organization or by members of an organization the nominee belongs to, will not be considered. When deemed appropriate, Casa Asia keeps the right to reassign nominations in a category other than the one initially proposed.

3. Candidates may be individuals or organizations, preferably from Spain or from a country of the Asia-Pacific region.

4. The award will consist of an amount of 2,000 Euros per category, which will be given to the awardees at the Casa Asia Awards ceremony. Casa Asia will also organize parallel activities with the aim of promoting the work and merits of the winners.

5. The jury will be made up of the Director General of Casa Asia, as a Chairman, and eight experts (two experts for each category). In the categories corresponding to their respective areas, the following representatives of Casa Asia's staff will act as Secretaries of the Jury: the Director of Economy and Business, for the category of Economy and Business; the Director of Politics, Society and Education, for the category of Education and Science; the Director of Culture and Exhibitions, for the category of Culture and Society; and the Head of the area of Diversity and Interculturality, for the category of Diversity and Sustainable Development. The jury's deliberations are secret. Its members will act with fairness. Votes may not be delegated but may also be cast online the day before the jury's meeting, in which case they should be submitted via email to the Chairman. The Secretaries of the jury will only vote in their respective categories. The awards will be given in a single vote and by a simple majority of the votes cast. In the event of a tie, the Chairman of the Jury shall have the casting vote.

6. The deadline for submission of nominations is December 9th, 2022.

7. Participation in the Awards entails the acceptance of these rules and the privacy policy of Casa Asia.

8. Nominations must be sent through the online form available on Casa Asia's website or by e-mail (including the information required in the online form) to the following e-mail: premioscasaasia@casaasia.es.

9. The Casa Asia Awards will be given at an event organized 'ad hoc' by Casa Asia in 2023.
