

Ruben Camba

Mr. Rubén Camba serves as the President of La Cámara, the Spanish Chamber of Commerce in the Philippines, and is also the Director of Infrastructure for Southeast Asia at ACCIONA, a global sustainable infrastructure company.

In his leadership role at La Cámara, Camba has been instrumental in strengthening economic and diplomatic ties between the Philippines and Spain. Under his guidance, La Cámara celebrated its 125th anniversary in 2024, marking over a century of fostering bilateral relations and business opportunities between the two nations.

Camba's dual roles at La Cámara and ACCIONA highlight his commitment to promoting sustainable infrastructure development and enhancing Spanish-Filipino business collaborations in the region.

Usec Charles Jose

Usec Charles Jose is the Undersecretary of the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) in the Philippines.

He is a seasoned diplomat who had previously served as Philippine consul general in Shanghai and Chongqing, both in China, and held other key posts in diplomatic offices in Beijing, Bangkok and Singapore. He also previously served as DFA spokesman and assistant secretary for public diplomacy.

Jose earned his Bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of the Philippines in Diliman and his Master's degree in Southeast Asian Studies from the National University in Singapore.

Tico Wieske

Mr. Tico Wieske is the Vice President for Global Commercial. He has 28 years of shipping and transport experience. He joined ICTSI in February 2016.

Before joining ICTSI, he was the Global Head of Key Client Management Asia Carriers of APM Terminals, Hongkong. Prior to this, he was the Chief Commercial Officer of APM Terminals, Asia Pacific Region. He represented APM Terminals in various boards including, ACT Aqaba Container Terminal in Jordan, APMT Port of Bahrain, SAGT South Asia Gate Way Terminals in Colombo Sri Lanka, SETV Abidjan Ivory Coast, DIT Douala Cameroon and MPS in Tema, Ghana.

Mr. Wieske earned his B.A. Economics degree in J. van Zwijndregt, The Hague, The Netherlands.

Emmanuel 'Jocot' De Dios

Mr. J.V. Emmanuel A. 'Jocot' De Dios is the CEO of Prime Metro BMD, a growing infrastructure-development and general construction company in the Philippines.

With nearly three decades of experience in the energy and infrastructure sectors, he has served as the CEO of General Electric Philippines, managed General Electric's government-affairs team for Asia-Pacific, and served as undersecretary of the Philippine Department of Energy, where he led the planning and downstream oil bureaus and was appointed chairman of PNOC Exploration.

USec Teodorico Jose “Teod” Delfin

Mr. Teodorico Delfin has been designated Undersecretary for Planning and Project Development at the Department of Transportation (DoTr).

Mr. Delfin has been Senior Vice President at First Gen prior to his appointment at the Transportation department.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science degree (1989) and a Bachelor of Laws degree (1997), both from the University of the Philippines. He is a member of the Philippine Bar.

Roderick Planta

Mr. Roderick Planta is the Assistant Secretary of the Infrastructure Development Office of the National Economic Development Authority (NEDA).

Prior, he served as the Director for the Monitoring and Evaluation Staff and Infrastructure Development Office. Asec. He was also an Economic Development Specialist for the Infrastructure Staff of the NEDA. He was also a Structural Engineer at the General Planners and Engineers Resources Company.

He finished his M.A. in Development Economics from the University of the Philippines Diliman where he also obtained his undergraduate degree in Civil Engineering.

Eunina ‘Nina’ Mangio

Consul Eunina “Nina” Mangio is the President of Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PCCI), one of the top business groups in the country.

Mangio has also been engaged in several businesses including Servcare International Corporation, an international holding company with subsidiaries in the United States, Asia, and Dubai, where she sits as president. She is also the Chairman of the Board of Mawell Chemical Corp., an electrical and mechanical contractor, and Choosers Choice Food & Development Corp., a chain of casual dining restaurants serving Korean and Japanese cuisines with 56 branches across the Philippines.

She was a graduate of the Mapua Institute of Technology, holding a double degree in mechanical and chemical engineering. She also earned her master’s degree in business management from the Ateneo Graduate School of Business.