

Technical-purchasing professional

We are looking for a technical professional, with training in mechatronics, mechanical engineering, or industrial design, or equivalent, and fluency in Chinese/Castellano, for a position in a leading company in industrial machinery design for the pharmaceutical sector located in the province of Barcelona.

GENUINE Executive search&Talent solutions, is collaborating exclusively with the company in the search for a professional who can contribute and develop experience as a Purchasing Technician in the industrial machinery.

Might you be interested?

Requirements:

- Experience on tooling and industrial sector (machinery, mechanical industrial engineering)
- Experience or understanding interpreting industrial equipment drawings (it's a must).
- Track data, identify improvement projects, and manage cross-functional implementation to improve performance of suppliers and key components by implementing process controls and quality assurance plans.
- Liaising with delivery and warehouse teams to ensure goods are received on time.
- Monitoring inventory and writing orders to refill stock.
- Inspecting purchased products upon delivery and reporting any issues timely.
- Updating all records of purchased products.
- Writing reports on purchases made and performing cost analyses.
- Attending and contributing to meetings with staff and other stakeholders.
- Meeting with vendors and negotiation. This isn't a negotiation for mass-produced products. Negotiate prices for specific parts for turnkey projects.

REQUIRED SKILLS

- Training in mechatronics, mechanical engineering, or industrial design, or equivalent.
- Ideally with some experience technical knowledge and experience to assess and validate parts manufactured.
- Sound research and networking skills.
- Chinese/ good level in Spanish.

Labour conditions

- Flexibility in offering a commercial or employment contract depending on the individual's interest and legal residency status in Spain and their requirements in China. Negotiable with the company.
- Professional development plan in a dynamic and international environment.
- Language training provided by the company.
- Salary or compensation, of approximately €40,000 per year.
- Other benefits.

If you are interested in this job opportunity:

Please, be so kind to send us your detailed CV, including your email and phone number, as well as your salary expectations for the change. To the attention of the GENUINE team:

candidato@genuinetalent.org

You also could apply to the add or to the job post at the www.genuinetalent.org

After receiving your CV expressing your interest in this job opportunity, we will contact you shortly By email and arrange a video conference to meet you and explain the details of the project and keep an interview with the consultant.